

Brent Longstaff

Brent is currently the Principal Tuba for the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra. He has performed as a guest artist with the Edmonton Symphony and as principal tubist of the National Youth Orchestra of Canada. He is also a soloist with the University of Saskatchewan Wind Orchestra and with the SSO.

Over the years he has performed with such groups as Spirit of the West, Helios Brass and BC Read's Big Blues Band. In 2000, Brent worked as the assistant coordinator for the International Tuba & Euphonium conference held in Regina. His teachers have included John Griffiths, Rick Lett and Richard Erb.

Brent is currently a band and music teacher for the Saskatoon Public School Division.