

Miles Newman

Miles Newman is the Principal Trumpet of the Regina Symphony Orchestra and Solo Trumpet of the Regina Symphony Chamber Players. Miles is presently the Head of Winds & Brass at the Conservatory of Performing Arts, University of Regina where he teaches the trumpet studio and is the trumpet instructor for the Department of Music, University of Regina.

Miles has studied with Lawrence House (UofS), David Hickman (ASU) and worked with Armando Ghitalla, Allan Dean, Robert Nagel and Anthony Plog at The Banff Centre. He returned to The Banff Centre as a performer for the 2008 ITG conference hosted by Jens Lindemann.

He holds Bachelor degrees from the University of Saskatchewan, in Music and another in Education. Miles is a trusted and much sought after Clinician, actively involved in helping develop young trumpet players in honour bands, SBA Band Camps and much more.