

Darcy Gingras

Darcy began his musical career at the age of 12 as a percussionist in his grade six band at W.F. Ready School in Regina, Saskatchewan.

Quickly discovering his passion for all things percussion, he began playing in numerous concert bands and jazz groups before enrolling at the University of Regina. Upon completion of his Bachelor of Music Education degree in 2003, he began teaching full time as an elementary band instructor in White City, Pilot Butte and McLean. He continued in that role until 2008 when he chose to resign and become an at-home parent and freelance musician.

Darcy has been a member of the Regina Symphony Orchestra since 2001 and currently holds the title of Principal Percussion. He has been a private percussion instructor at the Conservatory of Performing Arts in Regina since 2007 and provides sectionals and clinics for elementary and high schools throughout southern Saskatchewan.
